RECONCILIATION

Lockdown prevented many people from availing of Confession. The opportunity is now available again to be at peace with God and neighbour through Reconciliation, every Saturday, 5:30pm in St Mary's, Derrytrasna. This wonderful sacrament is a source of strength in changing for the better, as much about the future as about the past. Come back to me, with all your heart, for I am kind and full of compassion.

THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

Ry, my soul, with Mary fly,
soar beyond the golden sky,
mount to Mary's throne on high.
Bright the queenly crown she won,
sweet the reign she has begun,
as she stands beside her Son,
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

How endure this long delay?
Living here how can I stay
from such beauty far away?
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.
Sad my lot is here below,
who can hope or life bestow?
who will help or pity show?
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

But though far away from me,
still our sovereign Queen will be
full of love and clemency,
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

With a mother's loving care
she will lift those hands so fair
and will save us by her prayer,
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.
Mother's heart can't forget
that we are her children yet,
by such dangers' force beset,
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

Gently still, she bends her eyes
on the soul that longs and sighs
for her love, the heavenly prize.
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

Blest the soul who, like the dove
borne upon the wings of love,
follows her to heaven above,
Ry, my soul, with Mary fly.

(St Alphonsus Liguori)
