EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

This week: Eucharistic Adoration on Friday 5 July in St Patrick's at 7:30pm, concluding with Benediction at 8:15pm.

Regarding the Eucharist, St Francis of Assisi said, "O sublime humility! O humble sublimity! That the Lord of the whole universe, God and the Son of God, should humble himself like this and hide under the form of a little bread, for our salvation."

You are warmly invited to spend time in the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist during Adoration in St Patrick's fortnightly.

Next Adoration: Friday 26 July in St Patrick's at 7:30pm.

WORKS AT ST PATRICK'S

Following the submission of plans for development of St Patrick's Cemetery to the diocese last February, we received approval last Monday for those works to proceed. Accordingly, new parallel pathways will be laid at a width allowing for future plots back to back. This will allow us to use the remaining land in the cemetery with no wastage. Works will also take place at the bottom of the cemetery to improve drainage. It is hoped these works will get underway in the coming weeks.

Diocesan approval was also given for the completion of works to the interior of St Patrick's church, and these will proceed in a considerable number of months whenever the walls have sufficiently dried.

One of the best ways to discover more about the story of this city and its people is a guided walking tour, taken at a leisurely pace, along a route of approximately 1 km. Your tour guide will entertain you with facts and anecdotes as they escort you towards the Hill of Armagh, where you will be treated to a feast for the eyes with the panoramic vistas from Ard Mhacha, the height of Macha. The tours take place at 11am on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and 2pm on Sundays, from 13 June–8 September and last approximately 90 minutes. They are suitable for age 6+. The tour starts outside Armagh County Museum and finishes at the Celestial Sphere at the bottom of Abbey Street.

Cost £6 per person. Please see visitarmagh.com/walkingtours for more information and booking.
